

The Most Precious Blood of Jesus

WEINGARTEN

GERMANY

Every year a ceremony known as The Ride (or Procession) of the Blood, in honor of the relic, was organized at Weingarten.

A letter from 1278, dated March 1st, in which Albert, abbot of the Benedictine Monastery of Sant'Andrea in Mantua, confirms the Mantuan origin of the relic of the Precious Blood of Jesus, preserved in the monastery at Weingarten

The relic of the Precious Blood (17th century).
City Hall at Weingarten

Relics of the Holy Blood, Mantua

Procession in honor of the Holy Blood at Mantua

The relic of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus is preserved in the Basilica of Sant'Andrea in Mantua

Twinning between the cities of Mantua and Weingarten

Monstrances containing some relics of the Passion of Christ, Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna

Relic of the Sacred Lance with which the Roman soldier struck the side of Jesus. Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna

Reliquary containing the soil on which the Most Precious Blood of Christ fell from the Cross, Czestochowa, Poland

Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna